

February Calls to Action and Announcements

Plug Into Activism in 2020

Are you feeling urgency around this year as a major election year with huge implications for climate change and racial & economic justice? Are you wanting to know where and how to plug in? Lauren is offering to meet one-on-one with anyone who's wondering how to get involved and can help plug you into good work based on your specific interests and passions. Contact her at lauren.tatarsky@gmail.com.

Blog Post Shared by Carla

Click here for the blog post by John Pavlovitz that Carla shared during our gathering in February. It spoke to lots of folks, so please enjoy! Here's a peek:

"I believe generosity is greater than greed, compassion better than contempt, and kindness superior to derision. I believe there is enough in this world for everyone: enough food, enough money, enough room, enough care—if we unleash our creativity and unclench our fists. I'm not sure how these ideas became radical, though it seems to have happened in the last few years."

Want to Facilitate at Gather CIA?!

Here are ways you can show up:

- Lead the opening meditation
- Lead the closing ritual
- Make the playlist
- Give a talk
- Play music/sing
- Read a poem or passage

Contact us and sign up! community.inspired.action@gmail.com

Next Time:
March 14, 2020
10-11:30am

Riverside Arts Center
76 N. Huron St.
Ypsilanti, MI 48197

The playlist from February is available here!

Do you want to share your creative energy with CIA?

Are you an artist, poet, dancer, speaker, musician, singer, activist? Do you have special skills like videography, childcare, or graphic design?

In our co-creative community space, your skills and offerings are encouraged and needed. Contact community.inspired.action@gmail.com to share about what you do and/or to participate in future CIA gatherings. Thank you, and we look forward to seeing you in January!

Don't forget to check out our website and facebook page where we regularly post updates and pictures!