Calls to Action

During our time together on March 9th, we shared Calls to Action, or specific issues, opportunities, and actions we are involved in or aware of in our community around social justice, activism, and spirituality. Below are the details if you'd like to get plugged in!

- GLOBAL CLIMATE STRIKE

This event took place on March 15th. See the mlive article for details! Students are continuing to put pressure on the University of Michigan to take action on climate change. Stay informed and get involved by following the group on facebook.

- STUDENT ADVOCACY CENTER LIVE STORY TELLING FUNDRAISER

On April 12th from 6:30-9:30pm at Scarlett Middle School, come and celebrate the art of live storytelling, while supporting the Student Advocacy Center! Join us for an evening full of powerful speakers who, with the help of the SAC, have overcome educational challenges and come together to inspire, challenge, and create community.

Join Us in our Anti-Racist Work!

This month, we are diving into the Me and White Supremacy workbook together. Feel free to check it out and engage in this process with us.

"If you have come here to help me, then you are wasting your time...But if you have come because your liberation is bound up with mine, then let us work together."
